PASTOR'S CORNER

The past two weeks in my Pastor's Corner, I have take us back to Holy Week with a reflection by one of our parishioners of their experience at Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil. Easter started seven weeks ago but we are still celebrating the joy of the Risen Lord on Easter Sunday by continuing the Easter Season, or Eastertide. I would like to share with you the experience of Holy Thursday seven weeks ago by our parishioner, Derrick Snearl.

"As a new Catholic, receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation on April 8, 2023, I was deeply touched and honored when Sr. Joyanne reached out to me to be one of the participants to bring up one of the three Holy Oils, during this year's Holy Thursday service. I did not hesitate in accepting Sr. Joyanne's invitation as I looked at this as an opportunity to deepen the understanding of my faith and connect with the core tenets of Catholicism.

As a non-Catholic, I had attended previous Holy Thursday services at St. Dominic's. Now as a Catholic participant, I felt a deeper emotional connection to the prayers and reading of the scriptures. Also, I felt a special obligation to understand, not only the significance of the Holy Oils, but also the entire Holy Thursday ceremony.

Mass on Holy Thursday has some unique elements (e.g. washing of the feet, etc.). Also, to observe the ceremony, I tried to make sure I made a concerted effort to understand the "why" of all its elements – not simply to be there without reflection. I approached Holy Thursday with an open heart and willingness to learn. As I reflect on Holy Thursday with a deeper understanding, it is truly amazing what transpired on that day of the Last Supper. I am truly grateful and humbled that I had an opportunity to participate in the liturgy as more than simply an observer." Derrick Snearl.

May we all reflect back to those beautiful days of the Triduum, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday to continue to enjoy the Easter Season.

LA ESQUINA DEL PASTOR

Las últimas dos semanas en mi Rincón del Párroco, los he llevado de regreso a la Semana Santa con una reflexión de uno de nuestros feligreses sobre su experiencia en el Jueves Santo y la Vigilia Pascual. La Pascua comenzó hace siete semanas, pero todavía estamos celebrando la alegría del Señor Resucitado el Domingo de Pascua continuando la Temporada de Resurrección, o Pascua. Me gustaría compartir con ustedes la experiencia del Jueves Santo hace siete semanas por nuestro feligrés, Derrick Snearl.

"Como nuevo católico, al recibir el Sacramento de la Confirmación el 8 de abril de 2023, me sentí profundamente conmovido y honrado cuando la Hermana Joyanne se acercó a mí para ser uno de los participantes en traer uno de los tres Santos Óleos, durante el servicio del Jueves Santo de este año. No dudé en aceptar la invitación de la Hermana Joyanne, ya que vi esto como una oportunidad para profundizar la comprensión de mi fe y conectarme con los principios fundamentales del catolicismo.

Anteriormente, había asistido a servicios del Jueves Santo en Santo Domingo como no católico. Ahora, como participante católico, sentí una conexión emocional más profunda con las oraciones y la lectura de las Escrituras. Además, sentí una obligación especial de entender, no solo el significado de los Santos Óleos, sino también toda la ceremonia del Jueves Santo.

La misa del Jueves Santo tiene algunos elementos únicos (por ejemplo, el lavado de los pies, etc.). Además, para observar la ceremonia, traté de asegurarme de hacer un esfuerzo concertado para entender el "por qué" de todos sus elementos, no simplemente para estar allí sin reflexionar. Me acerqué al Jueves Santo con el corazón abierto y ganas de aprender. Al reflexionar sobre el Jueves Santo con una comprensión más profunda, es realmente sorprendente lo que sucedió ese día de la Última Cena. Estoy verdaderamente agradecido y honrado de haber tenido la oportunidad de participar en la liturgia como algo más que un simple observador". Derrick Snearl

Que todos reflexionemos sobre esos hermosos días del Triduo, el Jueves Santo, el Viernes Santo y el Domingo de Resurrección para seguir disfrutando del Tiempo Pascual.
