A Message from Fr. Roberto

As we continue to struggle with the pandemic and other difficulties in our lives and in our world, we are challenged to take to heart the central event and belief of our Christian faith:

The resurrection of Jesus from the dead, the triumph of goodness, love and life over hatred, evil and death. So, are we able to believe that God can bring back our world, our lives, and our economy to new life from the darkness of this terrible disease and the havoc it has wreaked upon us? I hope so. If we look back at our lives, we will be able to see how many times God has come through and brought us back from so many difficulties and even crises when we felt as if we were dead and buried.

And perhaps this pandemic has also caused many of us to rethink our lives, to reconsider our priorities, to treasure our families and loved ones more than ever, and, hopefully, to think about our relationship with God. So, my brothers and sisters, let us celebrate this Easter with full and confident hearts, trusting that God will once again save us and bring us back to life. And, if we have truly rethought our lives, reconsidered our priorities and come to treasure our loved ones even more during this pandemic, then once again, God's grace has triumphed over the darkness.

An Invitation to Those Who Don't Go to Church Regularly

I would like to take this opportunity to offer a special, warm Easter greeting to those of you who come to Mass only once in a while or perhaps not at all. Many of us find meaning and happiness in our lives through our faith and through attending church; others find their fulfillment in other ways.

There are numerous reasons people do not go to church on a regular basis, and I am sure you have yours. It may be that you have been hurt by the Church – by the institution itself, by one of its priests or ministers or by family members or others whose hypocrisy offended you or whose judgments made you feel unworthy and unwanted.

Perhaps you have been one of those who have experienced the Church as cold and insensitive or as denigrating you in some way. Or you might disagree with some of its teachings or simply consider the Church to be irrelevant to your life and your needs. Or perhaps you have just drifted away and don't think about church very much at all and don't feel a need for religion in your life.

Your reason for not attending church regularly is between you and God, and I do not intend here to defend Catholicism or any other religious belief. Every religion, every church, every human organization has a dark side, and the Catholic Church is no exception. Sometimes the Church blocks God's love as much as it reveals it.

Whatever your past experience has been with the Catholic Church and with religion in general, I would like to invite you to come back. Try us again. Or, if you have never belonged to the Catholic Church, try us. Maybe this time you will find life in the Church and be able to drink in some of its graces. Maybe this time you will find it in you to forgive the Church for its faults, and see why Jesus picked such an imperfect vehicle to carry on his presence.

Maybe this time you will be able to see in the Church what Jesus saw in it – an imperfect body made up of men and women like you and me, full of sin, full of ourselves, petty, small-hearted, less-than-sincere, miserly, and tainted, but also full of grace, full of Christ, big-hearted, sincere, generous, and pure; a group of men and women worth dying for – and belonging to. Come be with us! -- Fr. Roberto

Un Mensaje de Padre Roberto

A medida que continuamos luchando con la pandemia y otras dificultades en nuestras vidas y en nuestro mundo, tenemos el desafío de tomar en serio el evento central y la creencia de nuestra fe cristiana: la resurrección de Jesús de entre los muertos, el triunfo del bien, el amor y la vida sobre el odio, el mal y la muerte. Así que, ¿podemos creer que Dios puede devolver nuestro mundo, nuestras vidas y nuestra economía a una nueva vida desde la oscuridad de esta terrible enfermedad y los estragos que nos ha causado? Eso espero. Si miramos hacia atrás en nuestras vidas, podremos ver cuántas veces Dios nos ha amparado y sacado de tantas dificultades e incluso crisis cuando nos sentimos como si estuviéramos muertos y enterrados.

Y quizás esta pandemia también ha hecho que muchos de nosotros reconsideremos nuestras vidas, reconsideremos nuestras prioridades, atesoremos a nuestras familias y seres queridos más que nunca y, también, pensaremos en nuestra relación con Dios. Por eso, hermanos míos, celebremos esta Pascua con el corazón lleno y agradecido, confiando en que Dios una vez más nos salvará y nos devolverá la vida. Y, si realmente hemos repensado en nuestras vidas, reconsiderando nuestras prioridades y hemos llegado a atesorar a nuestros seres queridos aún más durante esta pandemia, entonces, una vez más, la gracia de Dios ha triunfado sobre las tinieblas.

Una Invitación a Aquellos que No Asisten Regularmente a la Iglesia

Me gustaría aprovechar esta oportunidad para ofrecer un saludo especial y cálido esta Pascua de Resurrección a aquellos de ustedes que vienen a misa solo de vez en cuando o tal vez nunca. Muchos de nosotros encontramos el significado y la felicidad en nuestras vidas por medio de nuestra fe y por asistir a la iglesia; otros encuentran su felicidad en otras maneras.

Hay muchas razones por las que la gente no va a la iglesia de manera regular, y estoy seguro que tú tienes las tuyas. Puede ser que hayas sido herido por la Iglesia – por la propia institución, por uno de sus sacerdotes o ministros o por miembros de tu familia u otras personas cuya hipocresía te ofendió o cuyos juicios te hicieron sentir indigno y no querido.

Tal vez hayas sido uno de los que han experimentado a la Iglesia como fría e insensible o que se han sentido denigrados de alguna manera. O quizás estés en desacuerdo con algunas de sus enseñanzas o, simplemente, consideres a la Iglesia irrelevante para tu vida y tus necesidades. O tal vez simplemente te hayas alejado y no pienses mucho en la iglesia y no sientas la necesidad de la religión en tu vida.

Tu razón por no asistir a la iglesia regularmente es entre tú y Dios, y no pretendo aquí defender al catolicismo o a cualquier otra creencia religiosa. Cada religión, cada iglesia, cada organización humana tiene un lado oscuro, y la Iglesia Católica no es una excepción. A veces, la Iglesia bloquea el amor de Dios tanto como lo revela.

Sea cual sea la experiencia que hayas tenido en el pasado con la Iglesia Católica o la religión en general, me gustaría invitarte a volver. Haz la prueba de nuevo. O, si nunca has pertenecido a la Iglesia, pruébanos. Quizás esta vez encontrarás vida en la Iglesia y serás capaz de beber algunas de sus ricas gracias. Quizás esta vez podrás perdonar a la Iglesia por sus errores, y ver por qué Jesús escogió un vehículo tan imperfecto para continuar su presencia.

Quizás esta vez podrás ver en la Iglesia lo que Jesús vio en ella – un cuerpo imperfecto compuesto por hombres y mujeres como tú y yo, llenos de pecado, llenos de nosotros mismos, mezquinos, pequeños de corazón, insinceros, avaros y contaminados, pero también llenos de gracia, llenos de Cristo, grandes de corazón, sinceros, generosos y puros, un grupo de hombres y mujeres por los cuales vale la pena morir – y a los cuales vale la pena pertenecer. ¡Ven con nosotros! -- P. Roberto

*En nombre del equipo pastoral de la parroquia y la escuela, de los dominicos – Laicos, Sor Lidya y Frailes – me gustaría deseárselos a ustedes y a sus seres queridos una
Feliz Pascua de Resurrección llena de bendiciones y nueva vida.*
