“ Love is a mystery that transforms everything that it touches into things beautiful and pleasing to God. The love of God makes a soul free. She sets about everything with great freedom of soul, because the love which dwells in her incites her to action.”

You are invited to tour classrooms, meet students, parents and teachers and learn about the great things happening at St. Dominic School! Even if you do not have school age children, we'd love to have you stop by.

Our Mission

St. Dominic Parish School, a Catholic faith-filled community, provides quality education which fosters the development of the whole child in a safe, caring and academically stimulating environment.

Pastor's Corner

Many thanks to the generous volunteers who helped clean out the community center the last two weekends.

It is in much better condition now, and

I hope the groups that use it work hard to maintain its present condition. It is a resource that many groups use each week.

I also know that many of you want to know the status of our renovation project. We had received permission from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the city of LA to repair the broken truss and damaged wall in the large room on the second floor. This repair will include preparing the room for our use again. Once final approval for the repair is given by Bishop Brennan, we hope to begin the repair of the large upstairs room, perhaps as early as the end of February. We have collected more than enough for that project, thanks to your generosity. It seems the repair should not disrupt the use of the first floor much.

On February 6, the architect, Mr. John Van Dyke of VanCrest Construction and I will make a presentation to the Archdiocesan Building Commission (ABC) regarding the renovation of the remainder of the building. We have been working with the archdiocesan building consultant, who has explained that we may not begin a capital campaign until the archdiocese has approved the renovation plans. When Fr. Peter made his original proposal, the ABC asked some questions that needed to be answered before the proposal would be accepted. Then when he was made President of our graduate school and I became pastor, the project stalled.

I have asked for input from groups in the parish regarding the renovation, we have a development director helping the project along, and an excellent development committee that Fr. Peter formed is working hard behind the scenes. We are following the archdiocesan guidelines regarding building projects and capital campaigns, and I hope to share more information with you after our meeting with the ABC. In the meanwhile, please pray for the swift completion of this project!

New Website

Please take a look at our new website, and let us know what you think. Also, if you are preparing for baptisms, funerals, or weddings, there is a lot of very helpful information. Our calendar of events is online, too. We will continue to update the website with materials for you to download. You can also register online, if you've never registered before. This is particularly important if you do not live in our parish boundaries. And if you don't know the parish boundaries... there's a map for that! (<http://www.saintdominics.org/contact>)

Change in Morning Prayer

The Dominican friars will begin Monday, January 23, to pray the Office of Readings (also known as Matins) at 7:15 a.m. in the parish church Monday-Friday. The Office of Readings consists of three psalms and two longer readings, one from Scripture, and one from the Fathers of the Church. Morning prayer will follow immediately at approximately 7:30 a.m.

Dominican Novices Visit

The six novices and Fr. Anthony Rosevear, their Novice Master, will be visiting our parish January 27-31 as part of their tour of the southern part of the Western Dominican Province. These men are examining whether they are called to the Dominican form of religious life – and we friars are discerning the same for them! Fr. Anthony will preach next weekend, and one novice will share a little of his vocation story at the end of each Mass. Please welcome them and ask them about their backgrounds.

Pro Life Prayer

Come, join us in praying the Holy Rosary every Saturday at 9:00 am on the corner of Townsend and Colorado Blvd.

We hope and pray to end the abuse and killing of babies in the womb.

Let GOD plan Parenthood!

LIBERACIÓN Y REFORMA

Aunque quizá tengas que usar un atlas para determinar que Isaías está hablando de Galilea, la primera lectura de hoy (parte de la cual se leyó en Navidad) profetiza el futuro ministerio de Jesús en esa provincia. La luz que trae la salvación y regocijo es, fundamentalmente, Cristo. El tema es la liberación: liberación de la ignorancia (“tinieblas”) y también del pecado (el “yugo”).

Mientras Isaías identifica un lugar, así Pablo describe una actitud: la actitud que crece, incluso entre gente buena, de equiparar su propia voluntad con el bien común. Esto siempre origina desacuerdo, y así ha ocurrido en Corinto. Pablo no permitirá esto; todos somos miembros del “partido de Cristo”. El Evangelio no es para dividirnos.

Mateo cita a Isaías en el Evangelio de hoy, y presenta a Jesús como el cumplimiento de las profecías de Isaías. El tema es “Conviértanse, porque ya está cerca el Reino de los Cielos” (Mateo 4:17). Para difundir este mensaje, Jesús comienza a elegir discípulos, y hoy conocemos a cuatro de ellos: Pedro, Andrés, Santiago y Juan.
