A Message from Fr. Roberto

Immigration Issues

One of the most pressing and complicated issues facing our country is immigration. This is a political issue, and it is also a social justice issue. At present, there has been a tremendous spike in the number of immigrants seeking to enter the United States – legally and illegally. On the one hand, every country has a right to defend its borders and to prevent illegal immigration; however, it also has an obligation to care for all people, particularly those in need. Below is some information I have taken from the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (www.usccb.org/committees/migration/) to help us understand immigration from a Catholic perspective so that we can judge more clearly our country's rights and responsibilities in dealing with immigrants, as well as helping us to form our own opinions in this matter. Let us pray for a just and merciful solution to this situation in the United States and throughout the world.

"The Catholic Church in the United States is an immigrant Church with a long history of embracing diverse newcomers and providing assistance and pastoral care to immigrants, migrants, refugees, and people on the move. Our Church has responded to Christ's call for us to "welcome the stranger among us," for in this encounter with the immigrant, the migrant, and the refugee in our midst, we encounter Christ. "A rich body of Church teaching, including Papal encyclicals, Bishops' statements and pastoral letters, has consistently reinforced our moral obligation to treat the stranger as we would treat Christ himself. In the 2001 pastoral statement, Welcoming the Stranger Among Us: Unity in Diversity, the Bishops of the United States called upon the Catholic faithful to a conversion of minds and hearts, imploring us to communion and solidarity with diverse newcomers, and entreating us to find new and meaningful ways to welcome our immigrant sisters and brothers into our parishes, schools and communities. In 2003, the Bishops of the United States, together with the Bishops of Mexico, in the pastoral statement, "Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope"/"Juntos en el Camino de la Esperanza Ya no Somos Extranjeros" acknowledged that the current immigration system is badly in need of reform and offered a comprehensive set of recommendations for changing U.S. laws and policies to bring about a more humane and just immigration system in the United States."

Important Scriptures Regarding Immigration

- The Israelites' experience of living as homeless aliens [in leaving Egypt] was so painful and frightening that God ordered his people for all time to have special care for the alien: "You shall treat the alien who resides with you no differently than the natives born among you; have the same love for him as for yourself; for you too were once aliens in the land of Egypt" (Lv 19:33-34).
- Jesus reiterates the Old Testament command to love and care for the stranger, a criterion by which we shall be judged: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me" (Mt 25:35).
- The Apostle Paul asserts the absolute equality of all people before God: "There is neither Jew nor Greek . . . for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (Gal 3:28). In Christ, the human race is one before God, equal in dignity and rights.

Three Basic Principles of Catholic Social Teaching on Immigration

1. People have the right to migrate to sustain their lives and the lives of their families.
2. A country has the right to regulate its borders and to control immigration.
3. A country must regulate its borders with justice and mercy.

Un Mensaje de Padre Roberto

El Asunto de la Inmigración

Uno de los asuntos más urgentes y complicados que enfrenta nuestro país es la inmigración. Este es un tema político y también es un tema de justicia social. En la actualidad, ha habido un tremendo aumento en el número de inmigrantes que buscan ingresar a los Estados Unidos – legal e ilegalmente. Por un lado, todo país tiene derecho a defender sus fronteras y prevenir la inmigración ilegal; sin embargo, también tiene la obligación de cuidar a todas las personas, especialmente a las necesitadas. A continuación se muestra información que he tomado del sitio web de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (www.usccb.org/committees/migration/migration) para ayudarnos a comprender la inmigración desde una perspectiva católica para que podamos juzgar más claramente los derechos y las responsabilidades de nuestro país en el trato con los inmigrantes, además de ayudarnos a formar nuestras propias opiniones en este asunto. Oremos por una solución justa y misericordiosa a esta situación en los Estados Unidos y en todo el mundo.

<https://specials-images.forbesimg.com/imageserve/1132026265/960x0.jpg?cropX1=0&cropX2=8176&cropY1=190&cropY2=4790>

“La Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos es una Iglesia de inmigrantes con una larga historia de acoger a diversos recién llegados y brindar asistencia y cuidado pastoral a inmigrantes, migrantes, refugiados y personas en movimiento. Nuestra Iglesia ha respondido al llamado de Cristo de que “acojamos al extranjero entre nosotros”, porque en este encuentro con el inmigrante, el migrante y el refugiado entre nosotros, encontramos a Cristo.

“Un rico cuerpo de enseñanzas de la Iglesia, que incluye encíclicas papales, declaraciones de los obispos y cartas pastorales, ha reforzado constantemente nuestra obligación moral de tratar al extraño como trataríamos al mismo Cristo. En la declaración pastoral de 2001, “Bienvenida al Forastero entre Nosotros: Unidad en la Diversidad”, los obispos de los Estados Unidos llamaron a los fieles católicos a una conversión de mentes y corazones, implorándonos a la comunión y solidaridad con los diversos recién llegados, y rogándonos que encontremos formas nuevas y significativas de dar la bienvenida a nuestros hermanos y hermanas inmigrantes en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y comunidades. En 2003, los obispos de los Estados Unidos, junto con los obispos de México, en la declaración pastoral “Juntos en el Camino de la Esperanza Ya no Somos Extranjeros” reconocieron que el sistema de inmigración actual necesita urgentemente una reforma y ofreció un conjunto integral de recomendaciones para cambiar las leyes y políticas de los Estados Unidos a fin de lograr un sistema de inmigración más humano y justo en los Estados Unidos.

Escrituras Importantes sobre la Inmigración

- La experiencia de los israelitas de vivir como extranjeros sin hogar [al salir de Egipto] fue tan dolorosa y aterradora que Dios ordenó a su pueblo para siempre que tuviera especial cuidado con el extranjero: “Tratarán al extranjero que reside contigo de la misma manera que a los nativos nacidos entre ti; Tengan el mismo amor por él que por ustedes mismos, porque también ustedes fueron una vez forasteros en la tierra de Egipto” (Levitico 19, 33-34).
- Jesús reitera el mandamiento del Antiguo Testamento de amar y cuidar al extraño, criterio por el cual seremos juzgados: “Porque tuve hambre y me diste de comer, tuve sed y me diste de beber, forastero y me acogiste” (Mt 25, 35).
- El apóstol San Pablo afirma la igualdad absoluta de todas las personas ante Dios: “No hay judío ni griego... porque todos son uno en Cristo Jesús” (Gálatas 3, 28). En Cristo, la raza humana es una ante Dios, igual en dignidad y derechos.

Tres Principios Básicos de la Enseñanza Social Católica sobre Inmigración

1. Las personas tienen derecho a migrar para sustentar sus vidas y las de sus familias.
2. Un país tiene derecho a regular sus fronteras y controlar la inmigración.
3. Un país debe regular sus fronteras con justicia y misericordia.
