Adult Education

Becoming Catholic

What does that mean? Well there are three levels of meaning.

For some who are not baptized in the Catholic faith or a recognized Christian faith and are seeking baptism and becoming a member of the Catholic Church.

For others who were baptized in the Christian Faith recognized by the Catholic Church what is required is a profession of faith followed by First Communion and Confirmation.

The last group are those baptized Catholic but have not made their First Communion and Confirmation and as adults wish to do so now. Anyone interested in becoming a full member of the Catholic Church, we have classes every Tuesday evening in the Adult Education Center from 7:30 pm to 8:30 pm. This process helps you understand the sacraments and our church so you can make an educated and spiritual decision to join the Catholic Church.

For more information please feel free to call Sr. Joyanne at 323-254-2519 or stdominicadulted@yahoo.com

Corpus Christi

La fiesta del Corpus Christi tiene su origen en Bolsena, Italia, cuando un sacerdote llamado Pedro de Praga, celebraba misa en la Cripta de Santa Catalina, cuando al partir la hostia cayeron de ella 83 gotas de sangre sobre el lino del altar.

El milagro fue conocido en todo el mundo cristiano y el corporal fue guardado en la Basílica de Viterbo. Entonces una monja humilde llamada Juliana, priora de Monte Cornillón, y otras autoridades de la Iglesia inició gestiones ante el Papa Urbano IV, para proclamar una fiesta en honor al Cuerpo de Cristo, la cual no se podía celebrar debidamente el jueves santo, día de la última cena.

El Papa accedió en 1264, emitiendo una bula para instituir la fiesta el jueves siguiente al domingo de la Santísima Trinidad. Luego los Papas Juan XXII y Clemente V le dieron más solemnidad, disponiendo la realización de una procesión de Corpus Christi, exponiendo la hostia consagrada, tal y como hoy la conocemos.

Luego en el Concilio de Trento, ante la expansión de las iglesias protestantes, la Iglesia Católica ratificó y dió mayor importancia al misterio de la Sagrada Eucaristía, como transmutación del cuerpo de Jesucristo en los fieles que comulgan.

Recepción de Despedida a los Padres Dominic DeMaio y Michael Chaberek

El sábado, 17 de Junio, tendremos una recepción para dar una cordial despedida al Padre Dominic y al Padre Michael Chaberek después de la misa de las 5:00 de la tarde en el Salón Parroquial. Estamos solicitando voluntarios para asistir en la organización de la recepción. Por favor contactar a Mario Garcia en la oficina, 323-254-2519. Gracias.

MISTERIO INEXPRESABLE

El Dios del universo es misterioso. La ciencia no ha podido resolver el misterio de cómo el universo surgió ni explicar exactamente qué es lo que continúa dándole energía creadora y diseño magistral. Ninguna religión afirma que ha encontrado las palabras para nombrar plenamente el misterio inefable de Dios, ya que no importa qué nombre usemos, Dios siempre trasciende nuestra limitada capacidad de comprensión. Dios es un misterio en el que se cree y que no se conoce. Y sin embargo, nosotros los cristianos creemos que el nombre que usamos para Dios es el que mejor expresa ese misterio inexpresable: Dios es la Santísima Trinidad de tres personas unidas en una comunión de amor, que se vierte en amor creador, salvador y santificador sobre el mundo. Las lecturas de hoy celebran el misterio de la Trinidad y nos dan las claves para vivir ese misterio en nuestras vidas.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It is often heard that today's observance is an "idea feast," and that it is somewhat difficult to grasp its meaning. Other great solemnities, such as Christmas and Easter, have an easily grasped core. Yet, even though the Trinity is at the heart of our faith, firmly declared in the Creed since the Council of Nicea in 325, we are used to having people shrug and say, "Well, it's a mystery."

Perhaps it is more helpful to think of this as a "relationship feast," since it unveils our deepest identity. Dorothy Day was a great social reformer, pacifist, and ardent lover of the Trinity. When people told her that she would certainly be canonized one day (the process is indeed underway), she protested dismissively by remarking that people were raising a fuss just because she was not afraid to talk about God. She loved the Trinity, and treasured the traditional icon for the feast, also known as "The Hospitality of Abraham," depicting the three angelic beings seated at a table tilted toward the viewer and laden with bread and wine. For her, the Trinity revealed the heart of the Catholic life, three C's if you will: community, communication, and communion. That was not an "idea" for her, but what it means to be created in the image of the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
