COMING EVENTS

July 30 Filipino breakfast

The Called & Gifted workshop that was published last week has been postponed until further notice.

A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today's readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches "from the River to the ends of the earth" (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

"My daughter, do whatever is within your power to spread devotion to My mercy. I will make up for what you lack. Tell aching mankind to snuggle close to My merciful Heart, and I will fill it with peace."

Divine Mercy in My Soul, (Diary 1074).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoice heartily, O Jerusalem! For see, your savior comes (Zechariah 9:9-10).

Psalm — I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — The one who raised Christ from death will give life to your mortal bodies also (Romans 8:9, 11-13).

Gospel — Come, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest (Matthew 11:25-30).

Support the House of Prayer for Priests

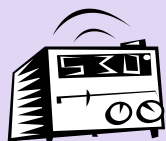

Bill Wardlaw, who is working for the Archdiocese to purchase a home on Hill Drive to use as a new location for the House of Prayer for Priests has asked me to invite you to show your support for this project by contacting two members of Representative José Huizar's staff, Kevin Ocubillo, his Planning Director kevin.ocubillo@lacity.org, and Paul Habib, his Chief of Staff paul.habib@lacity.org.

The House of Prayer is used by the Archdiocese in several ways. It is a location
 For priests to take a day of prayer, to meet with a spiritual director or confessor;
 For Jesus Caritas meetings; (5-7 priests who meet monthly for Scripture sharing, contemplative prayer before the Eucharist, a shared review of life, and fellowship over a meal)
 For the bishops of California to gather for their annual meeting;
 The friars in the priory have used the House of Prayer as a meeting place for a day of reflection and study together.

Online Giving is a convenient and safe way to make a one-time or recurring donation. Just visit our website, www.saintdominics.org, and click our Online Giving link.

Your gift will be securely transferred directly into the parish bank account. And you won't have to remember to write a check or stop by the ATM on Sundays! Thank you for your generosity and for helping us serve you and our community!

Pastor's corner

WELCOME FR. FRANCIS, FR. DOMINIC and FR. CASSIAN!

This Pastor's Corner is a little bit late, and I apologize. But this is a good time to introduce the three new members of the Dominican community – three refugees, if you will.

Fr. Francis Goode comes to us from the community we closed in Riverside. He was ministering in a primarily Latino community, which is one of his great ministerial loves. He just celebrated his 30th anniversary of ordination and will be serving as my one and only associate in the parish. Some of you know Fr. Francis from his time in Eagle Rock when Fr. Paul Scanlon was pastor, and I've already observed how excited you are to have him back with us. I look forward to working and living with Fr. Francis, because of his good nature and easy laugh. Maybe he'll loosen me up a bit.

Fr. Dominic DeLay will be in and out of LA for the next year while he enjoys a well-deserved sabbatical after serving at the Newman Center at UC San Diego. Sadly, the Dominicans have left that and other ministries in San Diego this summer, but I'm delighted Fr. Dominic has landed with us! He will celebrate his 25th anniversary of ordination in June 2018, so this is a special year for him, and I know he's happy to be close to his alma mater, Occidental College. Fr. Dominic is a wonderful singer and artist – with his art focusing on the production of films. I am hoping he might be able to attend one of our Dominican Film nights. I'm sure his insights would be fantastic. Perhaps we'll have Fr. Dominic join with his good friend Fr. John Paul Forte, Director of the campus ministry at the University of Arizona, to give us a concert!

Finally, Fr. Cassian Lewinski has arrived from the third community we closed – Berkeley, CA.

Fr. Cassian was pastor at my second assignment as a priest in Salt Lake City. I have many fond memories of my two years there with him. We were the only two in the community, and, fortunately, we got along quite well and worked well as a team. Fr. Cassian has just retired and is looking forward to reading, reading and more reading. I know he's interested in having a book discussion group at the parish, because it's even better to read and discuss! Just one thing to be aware of – never offer him food with even a hint of cilantro.

I am delighted to live with these wonderful men, and I know you will give them a warm maligayang pagdating, bienvenida, and welcome.

UN REY HUMILDE

Como el centro tonal en música, la nota que sigue retornando en las lecturas de hoy es la humildad. Esperamos con gozosa expectativa la venida de nuestro Señor como Rey. Pero se nos dice que esperemos y nos regocijemos en este manso y humilde rey, montado en un burrito. No en el caballo o el carruaje de los grandes y poderosos, sino en una humilde bestia que carga al Rey cuyo dominio se extiende “desde el gran río hasta los últimos rincones de la tierra” (Zacarías 9:10). Este Rey viene a desterrar las armas del guerrero y a traer la paz. ¡No es de extrañar que un mundo abatido se regocije y dé gracias a Dios!
