PASTOR'S CORNER

I wish you all a very happy Easter, feeling the joy of the Risen Lord. We have gone through 40 days of Lent, the Passion of Jesus, the death of Jesus on the Cross, and now the joy of the resurrection of Jesus giving us new life in the Spirit. Carry this joy with you every day and renew the joy of Jesus within you by receiving His body in the Holy Eucharist at every Mass as often as your schedule allows, giving the Holy Eucharist the priority in your life that it deserves.

Next Sunday, the Second Sunday of Easter, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, also called the Feast of Divine Mercy. This is a Catholic devotion that Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her encounter with Jesus and is associated with the special promises of Jesus and indulgences issued by the Catholic Church. The promises of Jesus are great gifts of grace and what is called a plenary indulgence for those who follow the devotional prayers of the Divine Mercy devotion. We here at St. Dominic's have our own Divine Mercy devotional group who meet regularly for Mass, prayer, and social time. You are welcome to attend a meeting to find out more about what they do and the messages that Jesus gave Faustina Kowalska to share with the world.

New Issue of Parish Newsletter

The spring issue of our parish newsletter, Veritas is now available. Pickup a free copy here at the church or visit our website: www.saintdominics.org/newsletter to read on your computer or mobile device.

LA ESQUINA DEL PASTOR

Les deseo a todos una muy feliz Pascua, sintiendo la alegría del Señor resucitado. Hemos pasado por 40 días de Cuaresma, la Pasión de Jesús, la muerte de Jesús en la Cruz, y ahora la alegría de la resurrección de Jesús dándonos nueva vida en el Espíritu. Lleva esta alegría contigo todos los días y renueva la alegría de Jesús dentro de ti recibiendo Su cuerpo en la Sagrada Eucaristía en cada Misa tan a menudo como tu horario lo permita, dando a la Sagrada Eucaristía la prioridad que merece en tu vida.

El próximo domingo, el segundo domingo de Pascua, celebramos el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, también llamado la Fiesta de la Divina Misericordia. Ésta es una devoción católica que Faustina Kowalska informó como parte de su encuentro con Jesús y está asociada con las promesas especiales de Jesús y las indulgencias emitidas por la Iglesia Católica. Las promesas de Jesús son grandes dones de gracia y lo que se llama una indulgencia plenaria para aquellos que siguen las oraciones devocionales de la Divina Misericordia. Aquí en Santo Domingo tenemos nuestro propio grupo devocional de la Divina Misericordia que se reúne regularmente para la Misa, la oración y el tiempo social. Le invitamos a asistir a una reunión para obtener más información sobre lo que hacen y los mensajes que Jesús le dio a Faustina Kowalska para compartir con el mundo.
