NATIONAL VOCATIONS
AWARENESS WEEK

This week is the National Vocation Awareness Week. Pope Francis stated, "Our common vocation to give ourselves in love develops and finds concrete expression in the life of lay men and women, devoted to raising a family as a small domestic church and working as the witness and spread of the Gospel to renew the different sectors of society. Many religious women and men and ordained ministers consecrate their lives completely to God for the sake of their brothers and sisters as a prophetic sign of the kingdom of God.

During this week, the Church gives thanks to God for the faithful who answer His call to their vocation in life. We pray that many more men and women will be open to the movement of the Holy Spirit in their hearts as they discern the calling and mission God has for them.

God put the thought of the priesthood into my mind in 1993, and I dismissed it, as I had my life planned out and the priesthood was not part of it. But God used people to bang me over the head with that call nearly every day for a few weeks until I finally prayed to God and said, "Yes." There have been many challenges and struggles in answering this call to the priesthood but the great joy of serving God and His people, especially serving you here at St. Dominic's, overrides the challenges, and the great joy of serving rises to the top.

The National Vocation Awareness Week offers us a special opportunity to redouble our efforts of prayer that young people would be able to hear the voice — the quiet, gentle voice many times — of Jesus inviting them into a vocation as a priest or religious.

SEMANA NACIONAL DE CONCIENTIZACION VOCACIONAL

Esta semana es la Semana Nacional de Sensibilización Vocacional. El Papa Francisco afirmó: "Nuestra vocación común de entregarnos en el amor se desarrolla y se concreta en la vida de los laicos y laicas, dedicados a formar una familia como pequeña iglesia doméstica y a trabajar como testimonio y difusión del Evangelio para renovar los diversos sectores de la sociedad. Muchas religiosas, religiosos y ministros ordenados consagran su vida completamente a Dios por el bien de sus hermanos y hermanas como signo profético del reino de Dios.

Durante esta semana, la Iglesia da gracias a Dios por los fieles que responden a su llamada a su vocación en la vida. Oramos para que muchos más hombres y mujeres estén abiertos al movimiento del Espíritu Santo en sus corazones a medida que discernen el llamado y la misión que Dios tiene para ellos.

Dios puso el pensamiento del sacerdocio en mi mente en 1993, y lo descarté, ya que tenía mi vida planeada y el sacerdocio no era parte de ella. Pero Dios usó a la gente para golpearme en la cabeza con ese llamado casi todos los días durante unas semanas hasta que finalmente oré a Dios y dije: "Sí". Ha habido muchos desafíos y luchas al responder a este llamado al sacerdocio, pero el gran gozo de servir a Dios y a Su pueblo, especialmente servirles a ustedes aquí en Santo Domingo, anula los desafíos, y el gran gozo de servir se eleva a la cima.

La Semana Nacional de Concientización Vocacional nos ofrece una oportunidad especial para redoblar nuestros esfuerzos de oración para que los jóvenes puedan escuchar la voz, la voz tranquila y suave muchas veces, de Jesús invitándolos a una vocación como sacerdote o religioso.

“The Bethlehem Christian Families (The Holy Land) November 25 & November 26, 2023

The Bethlehem Christian Families are here to sell their hand carved religious articles made of olive wood. The sale of these precious articles supports their Church Mission which is to maintain the roots and the existence of the Christian Families who are struggling to remain in Bethlehem.

At least Ninety percent of the funds raised through these sales go directly to Christians living in the Bethlehem area. The proceeds will create more work which will help them to survive and stay in the Holy Land since they have no other source of income and are dependent on the olive wood industry. Thank you for your support and generosity.” God Bless You for helping us in this mission.
